A Prayer for Charleston, SC

If you're like me it may have been difficult to find the words to pray in the wake of recent events in Charleston, South Carolina and the killing of nine people during a Bible study at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church on June 17th. Below is a prayer written by Jill Duffield which was recently published online in The Presbyterian Outlook. May God continue to speak hope into Times such as these.

Faithfully Yours, Lou

"Almighty God, our gathering together for worship and prayer is, this day both an offering of praise and a show of courage. We come to this sanctuary mindful that even sacred spaces are not necessarily safe spaces. We bow our heads remembering our brothers and sisters in Christ whose last earthly act was prayer. We give thanks for the lives of your faithful servants: Clementa Pinckney, Cynthia Hurd, Sharonda Coleman-Singleton, Tywanza Sanders, Myra Thompson, Ethel Lee Lance, Susie Jackson, Daniel Simmons and Depayne Middleton Doctor. Comfort their families and friends and strengthen them in the difficult days that are ahead. We pray, too, because Christ commands us to, for Dylan Roof and his family. Bring peace, transform hearts, show us again your resurrection power in places we cannot imagine it can come.

You tell us, Lord God, that perfect love casts out fear and the families of the victims of Mother Church and the people of Charleston have shown us what loving fearlessness looks like. Forgiveness has been extended, hands have been held, hymns have been sung, prayers have been lifted, unity has been demonstrated. The Goliath of hate and racism has not and will not win.

People of faith and prayer, slain after extending Christ's welcome in God's house, have left a legacy that cannot be gunned down. Their lives of love and grace have begat love and grace. The gifts of the Spirit that you gave them – gifts of love, joy, peace, gentleness and goodness – appeared defeated on Wednesday night, but on Thursday when people came together and sang, "We Shall Overcome," and on Friday when words of forgiveness were spoken and a vigil packed a coliseum, and on Saturday when crowds gathered in solidarity to say that symbols have consequences, and today as we and countless others pray for peace and commit to being peacemakers, we recognize the gifts you gave those nine are unstoppable, exponential, inevitable and victorious.

God of justice and compassion, you sent your Son for the sake of the world you love. He was murdered, his last words a prayer for forgiveness. Three days later he rose from the dead, his first words ones of reassurance, telling us not to be afraid because even death had been defeated.

Today we remember and proclaim: Violence and hate do not have the last word. The love of God made known to us through Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, always has the last word. The Spirit's crop of goodness and love and joy and peace and gentleness will not stop growing. Now is the time for us – people of faith, brothers and sisters of every race and background – to recognize these unshakable truths and in the midst of the storm, trust the power of the One in the boat with us.

We yield ourselves to you, Triune God, knowing you bring redemption, reconciliation and resurrection. Make us your witnesses. May your perfect love in us and shown through us, cast out fear and help transform the world.

Amen.

Dear Friends of GPC,
I wish to express my heart felt thanks to all my good friends of the church for all the wonderful birthday cards, phone calls and visits and the great gifts celebrating my 84th birthday. Surely you are showing God's love through your kindness,. May the Good Lord bless all of you for your thoughtfulness and kindness!
I am eternally grateful. Many thanks!
In Christ's love, I thank you!

Sincerely,
Dan Anderson

We want thank our church family for all their prayers cards and calls during Herb's surgery. God answered those prayers with a "clean bill of health".
A special thanks to Pastor Dave & Bonnie Wright, Pastor Lou Nyiri ,and Phyllis Dowd for all their visits and calls.

God Bless you all for your wonderful support during this time.

Herb & Bonnie Laughman

Thank you to all of the folks who have been a part of our Contemporary Service this past season. From dance to special music to character acting and puppeteering. Our spiritual gifts the Lord has given us are such a blessing to those around us. The dedication and commitment of those who participate in this service does not go unnoticed and is very much appreciated. The Lord has truly blessed this service and hopefully a blessing to all of you. - On June 28th, we will be worshipping outside at the Lions Club/Kiwanis Club pavilions at Rec Park (see page 4 for details). We hope that you can join us in worshipping our loving Father in His creation.

God uses humble servants to accomplish His great work...
~ Peace, Beth Christopher

Contemporary Worship News

Thanks to the Contemporary Praise Band, who take the months of June & July off for a well-deserved break. We'll miss you all! The Youth Band, under the direction of Bonnie Wright, will be providing music during the months of July and August at the 9:00 Contemporary Worship Service. If you sing or play an instrument and would like to join in, please give Bonnie a call.

I would like to extend a big thank you to my church family. Your prayers and positive thoughts during my neck surgery and recovery period have been such a blessing to me! Thank you for the cards, the deacons for the meals and all the support you have given me. I still have restrictions, but have a thumbs up from the recent visit with my surgeon. Again, your thoughts and prayers are so much appreciated! ☺

Vacation Bible School – “Water, Water, Everywhere”

“Water, Water, Everywhere” was our theme this year as 97 children and 73 teens and adults gathered for Vacation Bible School. Through singing, drama, games, scripture memorization, snacks, story-telling, and of course, many wonderful crafts in our “Water world”, we all experienced stories of Noah, Jonah, Jesus Calming the Storm, Jesus Walks on the Water, and Jesus having breakfast on the beach. On Thursday afternoon, 11 kids in grades 3-5, 3 teen aides, and 3 adults went to Zoo America for a fun-filled afternoon visiting reptiles and other animals. The VBS kids also brought in a total of 13 packages of flashlights and batteries to take to the South Dakota Lakota Reservation.

Serving Others Has Long-term Impact

Following the end of the Vietnam war, many people fled that country in fear of their lives. One of those people was Long Nguyen. He fled Vietnam as a young man, stayed for several months at a refugee camp in Guam, and ended up in PA at a refugee camp near Gettysburg. Our church reached out to him and supported him financially in his decision to go to Iowa to pursue a college education. Mr. Nguyen recently died, but his son, Don, wrote this to us, "...you and your congregation's decision to help out this kid from Vietnam has ultimately resulted in my family being born. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart."

NEED A RIDE?

If you are having trouble attending church services and/or church functions due to not having transportation, let the Deacons help you. We are only a phone call away. The transportation Deacon for July is Karen Breighner at 359-4492

“The library is looking good! Did you all know that it has been painted within the past two months? I chose a bright yellow/gold and it made the room seem so much larger and brighter. Our fellow GPCer, Neil Temple, did the honors and it looks magnificent. We were also able to rearrange the room to spice it up a little. Lou and Bill Fitzpatrick helped me one Thursday morning while I was going through books.

Pastor Dave helped me weed through the collection so more room could be made for new additions. Cheryl Betts will be helping me along with her mom, Wilda, this summer, to re-categorize the non-fiction collection to make it easier to locate a particular type of book. There will be no more groupings of books together. In other words each book will be assigned to its own category. For example, all those books dealing with devotions will be together. I think this will make it a whole lot easier to find a book and use the library.

We also have a new Book Mobile. It is actually a library cart on wheels and it is very nice. It rolls very easily, which helps me bring it to the library to change the books around. I have placed fiction on one side and non-fiction on the other. I have also placed all the DVD's (movies) on the bottom shelf. I will eventually place the music CD's there too.

You should all take a look at the movies. There are some very good ones there. I take donations of movies and music; so if you are in the midst of spring-cleaning, please keep me in mind.

I would like to ask that you all check around your house and car to see if you have any Crane Library books. I am missing some books and the library cards indicate that they have been checked out for a while. I would like to get as accurate an account of what books we have so I don't duplicate when I purchase additional ones. So, if you can return the books, that would be great. The end of the month would be wonderful.

Also remember that you must check the books, music, or movies out by filling out the library card in side the book, CD, or DVD and place it in the box on the cart or in the library. When you return the item, just place it on the bottom of the cart or in the book bin in the library. Then I match the library card to the book, CD, or DVD and return it to the shelf. As I said before, I have more cards than books right now.

If you have any other suggestion, please don't hesitate to let me know your thoughts and or ideas. I have had several people pass along some book titles for review and placement in the library and I really appreciate that. I do draw blanks sometimes, so your suggestions really come in handy.

Summer is a great time to pick up a book and jump right in. Reading takes you places you have always wanted to go or want to go again! So....Keep on Reading. Til next time!!

Cathy

We will again be taking a tractor trailer filled with donations to the Cheyenne River Lakota Reservation in July.

Save Your Furniture for South Dakota!

You have some very nice furniture you no longer need?

Is it cluttering up your house? Well, we've got the answer for you! We are again taking furniture to the Cheyenne River Lakota Reservation on our South Dakota mission trip this summer. Because we will again have a tractor trailer and driver provided for us, we will have plenty of room to take furniture. It must be in very good condition, and can be dropped off in Fellowship Hall from July 8-15. Any questions, call Penny in the church office at 334-1235. Thanks!

Traveling Day Camp Parents Meeting – Parents, please plan to come to the information meeting on the Traveling Day Camp experience on Sunday, July 12th following the 10:30 worship service in Eisenhower Lounge. At this meeting we will give you information about what will be happening and what items the children will need to bring to go up to Camp Krislund on Thursday afternoon. It is very important that you attend this meeting.

Music Scholarships Available

Students: There are still scholarship funds available for those students who want to attend a summer music camp, and who serve our church and the Lord with music. Please let Emily know at emilykkoons@gmail.com if you are interested in this support for your music in worship.

We'd like to hear from you! In July and August our pastors will be hosting a "sermon talk-back" time after the 10:30AM service each week. We'll meet upstairs in the sewing room.

“Feasts of the Bible”
Facilitated by Cheryl Betts
June 7 – July 12

God’s redemptive plan is unveiled through the feasts of Israel. The feasts are still relevant to our lives today because they:

Show how Messiah Jesus is the fulfillment of the feasts and holidays.

Illustrate the Jewish roots of Christianity.

Explain history and symbolism in the Old Testament.

Plan to join us at 9:30 on June 28 and 9:00 starting in July in the Mac Room as we tackle this topic.

New Adult Elective Sunday School Class:

“The God We Can Know”
July 19 – August 30

Beginning July 19th for seven weeks we will explore the “I Am” sayings of Jesus through the Gospel of John. How many of the “I AM” statements can you name without looking them up in Scripture? Consider coming and finding out more about the ones you know and learning about some new ones. With each statement Jesus uses vivid images to capture our imagination, revealing more about his identity the purpose. Join us at 9:00 as we learn together.

Volunteers Needed

VOLUNTEERS needed for tours and or baked goods for the GPC Open House during the 152nd Battle of Gettysburg Re-enactment scheduled for July 3, 4, and 5. Volunteers will give short tours from 1-2:30pm. If you are available or can bake please contact Cathy Gardner at lvgardner@comcast.net or call 337-3233.

Disciple Bible Study

The Disciple Bible Studies for fall will be:

Disciple I – facilitated by Randy Parmentier, will meet at 5:00 PM on Sunday Evenings. This 34-week course will move through the biblical story from Creation to the New Jerusalem.

Disciple II – facilitated by Cheryl Betts, will meet on Monday mornings from 10-12. This 32-week study examines the connection between memory and identity as the people of God. We will examine Genesis, Exodus, Luke and Acts, emphasizing the rhythm of coming to God and going for God...approaching all experiences of life as opportunities for faithful witness and service.

Disciple IV – facilitated by Marion Lambert-Hollowell, will meet at 5 PM on Sunday Evenings. The phrase “under the tree of life” conveys the promise of finding shelter, security, and rest in God’s love. In this 32-week study of the Old Testament Writings, the Gospel of John, The Epistles of John, James, Jude and finally Revelation, we will see the entire process of living toward final completion of rest and reward.

Fall Disciple Bible Study groups are forming now. Please stop by the Christian Education table in Fellowship Hall or contact Cheryl Betts at gpcdce@embarqmail.com or 334-1235, ext. 5. This is a wonderful way to get to know a small group of people and study God’s Word together.
