

GRAPEVINE

March 22, 2022

The Lenten season is a time in the church of preparation and repentance during which we anticipate Good Friday and Easter. Just as we carefully prepare for big events in our personal lives, such as a wedding or commencement, Lent invites us to make our hearts ready for remembering Jesus' passion and celebrating Jesus' resurrection. The forty days of Lent begin on Ash Wednesday and continue through holy week, not counting Sundays. As we continue this journey through Christ's death and resurrection, may the following prayer adapted from The Worshipbook (second edition, 2013) be a helpful focus for you and your family.

With Anticipation,

From Bethlehem to Nazareth,
from Jordan to Jericho,
from Bethany to Jerusalem,
from then to now,
come, Lord Jesus.

To heal the sick,
to mend the brokenhearted,
to comfort the anxious,
to disrupt the complacent,
to cleanse the temple,
to liberate faith from convention,
come, Lord Jesus.

To carry the cross,
to lead the way,
to shoulder the sin of the world
and take it away,
come, Lord Jesus.

Today,
to this place,
to us,
come, Lord Jesus.

Amen.

Getting to Know Our Candidate

A Message from the Candidate

Grace and peace to you in the name of Christ. My name is Rev. Caleb McClure and I have been excitedly waiting to meet you all today! When I began my search last year I started with a prayer: "I'll go where you lead me, Lord." That prayer guided my family through the difficult process of listening for God's voice over all the noise of life. And there are four small children, two cats, and one dog and a couple browsing plants that my wife and I share a home with, so you can imagine some of the noise!

When we first met Gettysburg in November, the interview felt less like a series of questions and far more like a conversation between two parties, eager to see what God might be doing. This feeling only grew and matured as we got to know GPC over the next few months.

The openness, the vulnerability, the willingness to engage in ministry and mission, the hand-made displays of stewardship adorning Fellowship Hall, the Christian concern shown to me and between the members of the PNC all point to the vibrant and active presence of Christ here in this church. This drew me in and has not let me go.

We are excited to experience the richness of culture and history here at Gettysburg and to walk alongside a team of bright and energetic partners in ministry as we build up the Kingdom. I am excited about all of the possibilities to continue serving God and look forward to worshipping with you on the 6th!

Why Reverend Caleb McClure

Discernment Process

The rationale for selecting this candidate:

- The PNC has relied on prayer, God's leading, and collaborative visioning throughout.
- The candidate aligned with a majority of our identified competencies.
- The candidate best met the congregation's vision as shared through the survey and the transition team forums.

Top survey priorities:

- Preaching
- Pastoral care
- Admin/managerial skills

Other characteristics:

- Energy
- People person
- Approachable
- Inclusive
- Educator
- Active in the community
- Passion for mission
- A developer of leaders
- Interested in youth and young families
- Able to navigate an intergenerational congregation

The more contact the PNC had with the candidate, the more we became convinced that this candidate is the person God was leading us to select. The candidate is devout, smart, and self-aware. The candidate anticipated areas where we might want reassurance and impressed us with wisdom, leadership, and deep spirituality throughout the process.

The PNC is eager to present this candidate to the congregation. Our time together has brought us closer to each other and to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We have leaned on each other to get through over half a year of challenges, including the loss of loved ones as well as other health, work, and personal struggles. Throughout this time, the PNC remained focused on discerning who would best lead GPC into its next exciting chapter. We deeply appreciate the prayers of our congregation for us as we discerned this call. We also benefited from Presbytery guidance and the dedicated individuals who gave of their time and shared their collective experience with a pastor nominating process.

EASTER CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

Your Deacons invite you to the all-church
Easter Continental Breakfast Buffet
on Easter Sunday, April 17th .

Serving times will be 9 – 9:30am and 10:30 – 11am
 in Fellowship Hall.

We hope you will join us for fellowship before or after the worship service you choose to attend as we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord.

The events framed by Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and his resurrection are some of the most dramatic and theologically important of the entire scriptural narrative. These days feature not only the drama of the triumphal entry, trial, last supper, and crucifixion but also poignant prayers and prophetic teachings of our Lord.

John's gospel devotes eight of its twenty-one chapters to this week alone!

The week begins with Passion/Palm Sunday and ends with the "three days" (also called the Triduum, from sunset on Thursday to sunset on Easter Day), the period during which we mark Jesus' trial, death, and resurrection. (Worship Sourcebook, second edition, 2013)

While this week can cause dissonant chords to rise within our souls as we move through the week's events, may we be reminded that from dissonance comes growth and we cannot celebrate Christ's resurrection without bearing witness to his death.

Join us this Holy Week & consider who you could invite, for this journey is meant to be shared.

Community Prayer Vigil for Ukraine

The Gettysburg Ministerium will hold a prayer vigil
on Wednesday, March 23rd at 6PM
at the United Lutheran Seminary Chapel.

If you are unable to join in person, then please make time in your schedule on March 23rd at 6PM to join in prayer from wherever you might be at the time.

Ukrainian Relief Opportunity

We have all been following the tragic stories of displaced people fleeing war in Ukraine. The images of refugees streaming from bomb-damaged cities shock us. They cause us to cry out to our Lord for peace and safety on behalf of our brothers and sisters caught in the fighting. Here are three things you can do to help...right now!

1. PRAY.

God hears our prayers and promises act for the good of His people!
Let us all commit to lift up our Ukrainian neighbors daily

2. GIVE.

The Presbyterian Church (USA) has set up a direct link for donations through Presbyterian Disaster Relief. You can find this link on their website at www.pcusa.org, by clicking on the link at the top of the home page marked "Support emergency relief for those fleeing violence in Ukraine."

Through trusted partners in the region, we are able to demonstrate solidarity with refugees and displaced persons through immediate gifts to the communities leading relief work and receiving refugees.

3. STAY INFORMED.

Listen to trusted news sources to keep up with developments in the region. Do not let your hearts be hardened or ears become deaf to the cries and needs in Ukraine and other European countries in the area.

Thank you for your love and care expressed on behalf of our Ukrainian neighbors!

Communicating with your Doctor

Have you ever left your doctor's office, and wondered what he/she was talking about, or wished you had asked more questions? Good communication between doctors and their patients is essential to your health, and yet too many patients feel uncomfortable "bothering" the doctor with their questions or fears. Would the average consumer be too uncomfortable to ask a plumber or contractor to explain what the problem is and how they propose to fix it?

Why do we go to the doctor?

There are many reasons:

To establish a good and trusting relationship so they will get to know you and your medical history before you need their expertise

You are having illness/symptoms and need to be seen

To evaluate your health risks and to keep us focused on healthy habits
Prevention

Helpful hints for your next appointment:

1. If you don't understand—ASK. Medical jargon is confusing; ask for an explanation in plain language. Doctors and nurses often lapse into "medical speak" without even realizing it. Don't hesitate to stop them and remind them to use more understandable terms. (Ask Phyllis Dowd about our recent abbreviation conversation.)
2. Going to the doctor can cause anxiety and we forget some of the things we wanted to discuss with our physician. Make a list of questions you want to ask before you go.
3. Give the doctor all the information he needs to help you—this includes symptoms, medications (including over the counter medications), allergies, and major stressors in your life. The loss of a job or illness of a loved one can have a major impact on your health.
4. If you are feeling rushed, tell the doctor, and think about making your next appointment for a time that isn't as busy. (I choose the first appointment of the day, or the first one after lunch.)
5. When your doctor is explaining something, try repeating it back to him to make sure you understand, or take notes while you are there. (You can always invite your Faith Community Nurse to go along to be an extra set of eyes and ears.)
6. Sometimes you might have to change doctors. My analogy is: "Sometimes the dress doesn't fit." You may have to search for a different doctor—one who gives you the time and information you need to truly understand your own health status. Ask your friends and relatives about their doctors with whom they are happy.

Don't hesitate to ask your Faith Community Nurse to attend a doctor's appointment.

Feel free to call me with your appointment dates so we can work together for your health needs.

Palm Sunday, April 10th One Great Hour of Sharing A Special Offering

For over 70 years, Presbyterians have joined with other Christians through One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) to provide resources to people experiencing need. Millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The gifts of OGHS support ministries of disaster response, refugee assistance and resettlement, food for the hungry, and community development. They help give people safety, sustenance, and hope. To learn more about how your gift to OGHS makes a difference, visit pcusa.org/oghs.

Please prayerfully consider making a special offering Palm Sunday, April 10th. Envelopes can be found in Fellowship Hall or in the pew racks.

The Spring Rummage Sale is scheduled for Friday and Saturday April 22ND AND 23RD. The Bake Sale will be back also.

We are asking only 3 bags OR boxes of CLOTHING per family. If we find later in the week that we can accommodate more, we will put out a notification. Please only donate clean, usable SPRING AND SUMMER clothing and items. Please donate household items, jewelry, tools. We are not able to take electronics, Christmas items, drinking glasses or books. Any furniture larger than an end table, coffee table or book case, please call or text or email a picture to Margo Har.

We'd like to get an idea of the number of volunteers who can help with set up, work the days of the sale, or both. Strong people are needed at 8:30 Monday morning to set up tables. There will be a sign-up sheet in Fellowship Hall. Please email Margo Har at stepmargo@comcast.net or call 978-807-3750, indicating how you'd like to volunteer.

Thank you, in advance

“Calendar of Giving”

The Calendar of Giving is an opportunity for our congregation to support numerous local organizations. Through this program, we identify local organizations that are in need of smaller donations. Each month, we will be collecting specific items for the identified organization.

For the month of:

April

We will be collecting items for
Adams County Office of Aging

Adult pull-on briefs (not the kind with tape on the sides) in sizes M, L, XL, disposable bed pads, Ensure or Boost nutritional supplement drinks and flushable wipes.

Women's Book Club

We will be kicking off the 2022 Book Club on Monday, March 28th at 7pm in the Eisenhower Room. Please bring a book that you've recently read that you really enjoyed ... or a few ... or a book that's been on your "To Read" shelf ... or just yourself! We will spend the hour socializing, enjoying delicious deserts, and getting to know some of each other's favorite books. All you need to bring is yourself and your favorite book! Also, mark your calendar for Monday, April 25th when we will meet after reading Alice I Have Been by Melanie Benjamin. Please email Megan if you are interested in joining or being added to our email list, MeganZiegler2014@gmail.com

MISSION PRAYER LIST

On Sunday mornings we will be praying for the following people/groups that we support:

- 3/27 Teen Workcamp
- 4/3 Family Mission Trip to Krislund
- 4/10 Mexico Mission Trip
Works with Accion Ministries to do construction, VBS, a glasses ministry, and fellowship with local Mexico Christians in the Yucatan each summer.

Please consider including them in your own prayers!
