Thanksgiving in Heaven

Here's a neat thing you can do this Thanksgiving. Right around 2 p.m. on turkey day, take a walk outside and look at all the cars in your neighborhood. And then just imagine all the food being cooked in those homes, all the gathering, all the fellowship that's happening, all the fond memories being made.

To me this moment in time, and it happens a few times throughout the year, is both compelling and disheartening. It's compelling because, at least for me, it tells me that family and community are still vital parts of our world. We have held onto these traditions and will continue to do so as our planet makes its way around the sun.

I also believe that these moments are disheartening. As many of us gather, we do so as little microcosms. We are separated in our togetherness. All those casseroles, all those turkeys, all those games, shared with just a small group of people (our families, no less); and yet, we remain apart.

And, as much as we are together with our families and friends, there are just as many people who will receive no invitation this year, just as many who eat alone and many more who don't get to eat even at all.

Thanksgiving to me is not disheartening because we do it, but because I know that one day we will all be together, everyone will have an invite, and no one will go hungry. In the Kingdom of Heaven, on Thanksgiving Day, I imagine things will be like the passage in Luke:

...'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.' "'Sir,' the servant said, 'what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.' (Luke 14:21-22)

I long for this day, and I hope you do, too.

Perhaps a mission you can adopt this season is to invite one person extra, to your gathering. Someone that has no where else to go. Invite them in and make them a part of your family's rich tradition this year. Or maybe you can set one more place at the table - an empty chair to remind you that in God's Kingdom, there will always be room.

I hope you find a way to live faithfully into God's calling to build up his Kingdom now as we collectively wait for the day when Christ returns. Until then we pray: come, Lord Jesus, come.

May you have a blessed Thanksgiving this year. Pastor Caleb

Thank You!

Many thanks to Sarah Lambert and Pat Conklin for their generous donations of yarn to the G.P.C. Shawl Ministry. We have enough yarn to keep us knitting and crocheting for years and years! A tremendous gift. Thank you.

Please join us in this mission effort. We meet on the second Thursday each month at 10:00 a.m. in the Eisenhower Lounge. Bring along your current craft project for a time of fellowship.

Contact Beth Fitzpatrick for further information: 717-334-4960, bethieandbill@comcast.net.

A Big Thank You to all Rise Against Hunger Volunteers!

Our whole-church meal packing event with RAH was a huge success this year! Together we managed to raise funding in excess of $7100, which allowed us to purchase enough supplies to package 17,500 meals in less than two hours! These will now be distributed to food-insecure locations around the globe through various NGO's. We had 124 participants ranging in age from 6 years old to 86 years old, everyone had a job to do and played an important role in reaching our goal! Our Fellowship Hall was alive with fun, laughter, and the sound of a gong, celebrating each 2,000-meal milestone. Reactions have been overwhelmingly positive about the experience, and there is a desire to repeat it again in the future!

On behalf of your GPC Missions Team I want to thank you for your support and participation. GPC is once again leading the way and drawing our community into God's presence and joyful service! Tom Kolmer, GPC Missions Team, 717-634-0258

Stewardship Campaign 2023 "Growing Back Together"

We have been through two tough years. We've experienced: online worship, little fellowship, concern for our health and the health of others, and now inflation.

We can now experience joy and fellowship in the church. We enjoy the choirs and music. Communion reminds us of Christ's sacrifice for our sins. We get satisfaction from hearing about the mission trips by youth and adults. There is support for the poor and homeless. We learn from the Bible, and there is so much more.

When it comes to giving our time, talents and treasure to the church, we can be cheerful seeing that so much comes from this investment. We can be cheerful givers knowing that by our contributions to the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church, we can accomplish so much more than we could do alone...Praise God!

The Stewardship Committee

Growing Back Together in Stewardship and Fellowship!

Our 2022 Stewardship Campaign theme uses fruits to symbolize our ministry commitments: Pears=Time, Apples=Talents, and Grapes=Treasure. Give some of your time, talent, and treasure to bring GPC together on Sunday, November 13th by creating or providing a treat or baked good using those fruits. Perhaps you have a delicious recipe for Pear Tarts, Apple Crisp, or Cinnamon Raisin Bread that you could prepare, or even bring in a bunch of grapes to share.

Tables will be set up in Fellowship Hall all morning for your contributions, giving us a wonderful opportunity to fellowship together in stewardship.

Moses and the Burning Bush A Truly Transformative Adult Education Opportunity

In Chapter 3 of Exodus, we read about Moses' encounter with God in a burning bush. It's not a long encounter, spanning some 17 verses, but like so much with God, there is far more than meets the eye. On the surface it mostly seems that God identifies Himself, and then tells Moses to go free the Israelites – over Moses' protestations.

However, delve in and you find that there is far more that God reveals about Himself: who He is and His nature. Explore these profound truths in a video series in the Adult Sunday School class held in the MacAskill Room at 9:30 Sunday mornings, featuring the late Dr. R. C. Sproul. You'll be amazed and challenged as you hear Dr. Sproul and discuss the concepts he presents. This class is facilitated by Susan Kolmer and Lynne Graziano. No prior attendance is necessary to join in and learn some amazing truths about God that you might not have known. Note that this is the second 5 weeks of a 10-week series running from 23 October through 20 November. For more information, you can contact Susan Kolmer at skolmer@comcast.net or Kyle Clark at gpcdce@gettysburgpresbyterian.org.

New Church Directory

A pictorial directory is a powerful tool in our church to help each of us know each other better and stay in touch. Our last directory is now outdated and it is time for a new one. The Outreach and Welcome Committees are sponsoring a new directory campaign. Photos will be taken Nov. 1st thru Nov. 4th. Saturday, Nov 5th was eliminated due to a low sign-up rate.

GPC sent out emails with a link that you can click on for an appointment. The link is also on the GPC website and Facebook page. A sign-up table in the church will be available in Fellowship Hall on Sundays in October beginning October 9th.

Every family photographed for the directory will receive a copy of the directory and an 8x10 portrait at no cost. If interested, an opportunity to purchase additional copies will be available, but not required.

Photo appointments are available on this link: www.tinyurl.com/gpcphoto

The Fellowship & Family Ministry Teams are delighted to once again sponsor a trip to The Christian Life Assembly in Camp Hill for their annual Christmas presentation,

Christmas Wonderland "A REASON TO SING"

Saturday, December 10th @ 2:00 PM

Enter the world of the Beckett family of Cranberry Ridge, New Hampshire. The year is 1895. Snow is falling. You can smell homemade pies and roasted chest-nuts. And you can hear the sounds of Christmas down the cobblestone streets of this quaint little town. Music is a large part of Stephen Beckett's life. He is a singer of great renown in his community. Watch when circumstances try to take his passion for music away and how an unexpected loved one helps him hang onto his reason to sing. As always, you will enjoy beautiful music, dance, laughter and a living nativity. And although this story takes place more than 100 years ago, you will find that some things never change: the love of family, the importance of friends, and a God who loves us enough to send His Son to be born in a manger.

In addition to the performance, you are also able to enjoy The Christmas Wonderland Lobby Experience with special music, live nativity, tasty treats and more. Doors open one hour prior to performances.

Tickets cost $15.00 for adults and $10.00 for students (age 5-18) We will plan to leave the church parking lot at 12:00 pm.

Sign up in Fellowship Hall or you can contact Peter North at (717)339-9594 or by email at pnorth@gettysburg.edu with questions.
