

Jamie is a native of Myerstown, PA and graduated from ELCO High School prior to attending West Chester University. She graduated from West Chester in 2004 with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education and again in 2010 with a Master of Music Education in Choral Conducting. Jamie's first teaching jobs were in the Vernon Township School District (N.J.) and the Cocalico School District before arriving in Gettysburg in 2007. Since 2007, Jamie has been the choral director at Gettysburg Area High School, and has directed or assisted the choral program at Gettysburg Area Middle School.

Jamie's music ministry experience extends back to 2005, when she began serving as the Choir Director of St. Paul UCC Church in Chester Springs, PA. In 2009, she began a nearly 10 year stint as the Minister of Music and Organist of Emmanuel UCC in Abbottstown, PA. In March of 2019, Jamie joined the staff of GPC as Director of Music and Choir Accompanist.

Jamie has been a collaborative pianist since the age of 11 and has accompanied countless school concerts, church choirs, and recitals. She has accompanied the Gettysburg Children's Choir, multiple Adams County Chorus Festivals, and served as the Chapel Pianist for Gettysburg College Chapel's Lutheran Worship.

Jamie and her husband, David, met at West Chester. They have two sons, Chase and Blake, and reside in Gettysburg. The Bowman family enjoys spending time outdoors together, making music, and spending time at Hershey Park.
