

"The Pastor's Page"

The Lord of the Small by Johanna Anderson

This morning Candace shared with me a poem hymn written by Johanna Anderson. Anderson penned these words in memory of a little child who lost a battle to cancer at the age of 10. As I read these words they gripped me in such a way that I cannot shake them from my mind. They remind me in this season of Thanksgiving how much I have for which I can be grateful. They also remind me how the world in which we live is filled with stories like Johanna Anderson's of people who need a word of hope in tough times. I pass these words along on the off chance they might speak to you as well.

If you would rather hear this hymn sung, you can follow the youtube link to the 2013 Florida State University Choir Camp https://www.youtube.com/watch?vgJUMSWJQg80

Grace Peace,

The Lord of the small

Praise to the Lord of the Small Broken Things, Who Sees the Poor Sparrow that cannot take wing. Who loves the lame child and the wretch in the street who comforts their sorrows and washes their feet.

Praise to the Lord of the faint and afraid who girds them with courage and lends them his aid, he pours out his spirit on vessels so weak, that the timid can serve and the silent can speak.

Praise to the Lord of the frail and the ill who heals their afflictions or carries them til, they leave this tired frame and to paradise fly.

A Different Way of Donating

The Session has approved offering the use of ACH technology for members who desire to make their contributions to Gettysburg Presbyterian Church via an electronic method other than BillPay, which many of you already do. ACH stands for Automated Clearing House and the system operates by the member authorizing GPC to make an automatic draw from their bank account, similar to having your electric, gas or phone bill automatically debited from your account.

The real advantage to the members of the church is that once you authorize an amount and frequency, it will become an automatic debit for whatever length of time you specify. You do not have to write a check or put it in an envelope or bring it to church.

If interested, please fill out the form below and mail it or drop it off to Penny in the church office. Please contact Penny (334-1235 or gpcadminassist@embarqmail.com) if you are ready to switch to the new system.

If you have any questions about this new method of giving, please feel free to contact the church treasurer, George Marguglio, at 339-5125 or on his cell phone at 717-873-1351. He can also be reached via email at georgemarguglio@comcast.net

We hope this will be an added benefit that will allow our members more flexibility and greater ease in donating to the church.

If you are changing your pledge amount for 2015, please fill out the agreement below to authorize the change.

NEED A RIDE?

due to not having transportation, let the Deacons help you. We are only a phone call away. The transportation Deacon for Nov. is Barry Wareham at 359-7623 and December is Karen Breighner at 359-4492. G P C Book Corner I am so overcome by the support from my GPC family during my recent health crisis. Your cards, emails, phone calls, messages and most importantly your prayers have been marvelous.

It is a safe bet that I (and my family) couldn't have come through it without them.

Just a quick update; I am pretty much back to my normal routine. Of course, I am cutting back and taking time to heal. I did not have to go into cardiac rehab but was able to go back to the gym and begin a modified exercise program this past Monday. I am hoping to extend that exercise program after a month and a follow up appointment with the doctor. Life really does throw you curves and makes you challenge yourself. My faith and my family (including you all) have really pulled me through. For that I thank you!!

During my down time, I have been reading. Would you think anything else of me? But I am reading light books to kind of help relax my mind. You would not believe all the things you think of after a life-threatening health problem.

I am currently reading the new John Grisham novel, Gray Mountain. I can't say much about it yet as I have only just begun but the protagonist is female. I'll fill you all in later once I have completed it. I also have a new Jodi Picoult novel entitled Leaving Home. Ms. Picoult writes about real life situations in fiction format. This one is about a woman looking for the mother she thinks abandoned her after a tragic accident. I am hoping these two novels will help pass the time as I recuperate. I will keep you all posted on the outcomes and possibly will place them in the library so you can enjoy them also.

Tis the season, so I am also already thinking about Christmas presents and have asked Jim for a new Bible. I currently have an American Revised Standard and the Living Paraphrased Bible. I don't really know what to ask for so I should probably speak with Dave and Lou about their favorites. If you have a favorite Bible, I would really love to hear from you as it might help Jim with his search. I know that I definitely want one that can be written in, as that really helps me understand the passages and I can go back and refer to them too. The Living Paraphrased Bible was my grandmother's and she has things written all through it and that helps me remember her, which are pleasant memories!

Well, I am going to keep this short. Again, you all are so very important to me and I love you all. Please keep those prayers coming and of course...

KEEP ON READING!!
